

All of the unknown, and we try to let it go
But were haunted by the shadows, and surrounded by a bunch of g
hosts
It's never really been impossible
Look at all the signs that we see in the unknown
Keep on trying to let it go
But were haunted by the shadows, and surrounded by a bunch of g
hosts
It's never really been impossible
Look at all the signs that we see in the unknown

I'll keep on hauntin' 'til he's dead Wasting no more time, it's the life that he spent
It's the taste, it's a waste
It's the blood around face
It's the evil that is comin' from inside of us, around this pla ce
It's such a simple disguise
I'm always feeling like the time is comin' only to die
It's seemin' like it so impossible to say my goodbyes
Look I'm feenin', for some meaning
Just to save my demise, I know

If I got a problem, then I let it be known
So I'ma let the pussies know that we ain't playing no more
It's UAV all day everyday to grave, yeah, I say it all the time
But it's the only thing I bang, so what fuck boy keep it moving
You gon' end up turning in your grave to my music
'Cause you hating life and you always steady losing
And you looking for a handout mothafucka
Yeah, we knew it mothafucka what?

All of the unknown, and we try to let it go
But were haunted by the shadows, and surrounded by a bunch of g
hosts
It's never really been impossible
Look at all the signs that we see in the unknown
Keep on trying to let it go
But were haunted by the shadows, and surrounded by a bunch of g
hosts
It's never really been impossible
