

Wolves Among Sheep

Unaverage Gang

The times you'd rather go
Leaving me here stuck all alone
All lies
All lies
More time I got left to feel
The times you'd rather go
Leaving me here stuck all alone
All lies
All lies
More time I got left to feel

Yeah, all my life I try my best just to hold it down
Seems like my fuckin' stress always wants to double down
Funny how these mothafuckas think they know me now
But they don't know shit, look my mere image shot me down
I'm lookin' up 'til the day that I fall asleep
No giving up 'til the shadows that gon' come for me
Many times I've been seein' this before
Never thought I'd be this lost long ago
All my life I never thought I'd ever need help
I'm always livin' on edge without a seat belt
And fuck all the people who wanna see me burn in hell
Bitch I'm there and still gettin' room service in a hotel

The times you'd rather go
Leaving me here stuck all alone
All lies
All lies
More time I got left to feel
The times you'd rather go
Leaving me here stuck all alone
All lies
All lies
More time I got left to feel

The more that I'm alone, the more that I get accomplished
The devil had my soul and he sold it off for a profit
So much that I've learned in this life, you cannot trust no advice
I got a few brothers who's riding or dying for life
It's up to you to make a change, and make a difference
Only difference is I'm different from most mothafuckas in this
Been losing motivation, but I'll never quit
'Cause I'm not a bitch, I full commit on every hit
Fuck the system, do whatever it is that pleases you
If people hate you, means your doing what your supposed to do
Long days, so hard maintaining focus
We only live for a moment so fuckin' make it worth it
Only you can decide who you wanna become
