

Beach Chair

Uncle Kracker

Headin' down to Cocomo
Kid Rock on the radio
Packin up everything that I own
Go where tequila flows out of site
Underneath the moonlight
We gonna party tonight, yeah

Gon find a little shack
And I ain't coming back
Gonna hang out in the sun
Might even burn me one

Everybody here is having a real good time

Somewhere there's a beach chair
In the warm air
And a cold beer with my name on it
Where the girls in bikinis dance all night long
Somewhere where the sun shines shinning
And a good time an
Got the breeze the palm trees
Yeah, we feelin' fine
And I'll be chillin here, sippin beer
Living life without a care
Sitting in a beach chair

Nobody dressed to the 9's
Ain't got no 9 to 5
Just hundred proof and a lime
I'm bout to free my mind
Salt on the tongue
Sand on the toes
Whatever happened it happened
And we ain't thinkin about it anymore

Everybody here is having a real good time
I said that everybody here is having a real good time

Somewhere there's a beach chair
In the warm air
And a cold beer with my name on it
Where the girls in bikinis dance all night long
Somewhere theres a sun shine shinin'
And good time an
Got the breeze the palm trees
Yeah, we feeling fine
And I'll be chillin here, sippin beer
Living life without a care

Pina Colada
She said she wanna
Rub me down with lotion
Tequila Strong
Bikini Thong
I told her meet me by the ocean

Cause everybody here is having a real good time (a real good time)

I know there's a beach chair
Somewhere there's sun shine shinin'
And good time an
Yeah, we feelin' fine
And I'll be chillin here, sippin beer

Somewhere there's a beach chair
Somewhere there's a sun shine shinin'
And good time an
Yeah, we feelin' fine an
And I'll be chillin here, sippin beer
Living life without a care
