Take Another Step

Under The Flood

I saw the lines in front of me
Then the lights came suddenly
I couldn't turn away
Life changed in a moment
What have I done?
And I can't go on

Well take another step and you'll see another reason to breathe
And take another breath and breathe for me and see we're never leaving
And take all that's left and make it something beautiful
I felt like dying before
I'm not running anymore

I watched the days turn into weeks
And all the nights I couldn't sleep
Your memory's all around
I can't look in the mirror
What have I done
I don't want to live this life anymore
And I've had enough
And I don't have anything left that's still worth fighting for

We'll take another step and you'll see another reason to breathe
And take another breath and breathe for me and see we're never leaving
Take all that's left and make it something beautiful
I felt like dying before
Will I make it through this storm?
I'm defeated and so torn
But I'm not running anymore

Give me a sign while I'm barely still alive
Show me there's beauty in this life worth finding
It was lost in a moment
I need to see in the end it's someone saving
I need to know you still believe in me

Take another step and you'll see another reason to breathe
Well take another step and you'll see another reason to breathe
And take another breath and breathe for me and see we're never leaving
And take all that's left and make it something beautiful
Will I make it through this storm?

We'll take another step and you'll see another reason to breathe
And take another breath and breathe for me and see we're never leaving
And take all that's left and make it something beautiful
I felt like dying before
Will I make it through this storm?
I'm defeated and so torn

I'm not running anymore
