Underoath

What if I learned to hate
What if you learned to fight fair
What if you didn't
Make me feel like a criminal
Look in the mirror, you animal
What if I learned to care
What if you didn't use me
What if I didn't bite my tongue, you cannibal
I can forgive but I won't forget this
I can forgive but I won't forget this

Dig your grave and call it home
Now you're stuck at the bottom
Carved your name in the stone
You cannibal
There's no hope, put an end to this nightmare
Watch it die, breathe it in, no, I'm not scared
I'll meet you down at the bottom
I am the one that haunts your ghost

What if you walked away
Instead of spitting your poison
It didn't have to end up like this
You're drunk, buzzing on the regret
You want a goodbye, I wanna disappear
Couldn't spin another line that I wanna hear
Couldn't say another word that would make me care
I can forgive but I won't forget this
I can forgive but I won't forget this

Dig your grave and call it home
Now you're stuck at the bottom
Carved your name in the stone
You cannibal
There's no hope, put an end to this nightmare
Watch it die, breathe it in, no, I'm not scared
I'll meet you down at the bottom
I am the one that haunts your ghost
Cannibal
You cannibal

So I'll pray to anything, anyone
That can save me from what you are
So I take another step, another way
This road don't look so far

So tell me that I'm not enough
And you're happy that I gave up
The deeper and further this goes
The more I realize the love that I deserve
Love that I deserve
Love that I deserve
