

Damn Excuses

Underoath

You never gave me anything I wanted but I'm stuck in the cycle
with you

Fuck your revelation and fuck your weak conviction
I am finally exposing the truth

Slow down you're getting ahead of yourself man
Hold on we've already thought this one through Why won't you just walk away

Breathe deep before you cross the line
Find yourself another victim
Take cover this could last all night
I don't want an explanation

Yeah
Used up you keep on falling apart man
How many times can you do this

Think before you cross the line
Find yourself another victim
Take cover this could last all night
I don't want an explanation

You never gave me anything I wanted but I'm stuck in the cycle
with you
Fuck your revelation and fuck your weak conviction
I am finally exposing the truth

Lost inside of excuses
Lost inside of it

Ring me out (I never saw this coming)
Giving up (I think I've had enough) worry now (I never saw this coming)
Had enough (oh god)

I'm lost in the eye of the user

God can anybody hear me
God can anybody hear me now
