

Shame

Underoath

You tried to write your story with all our blood
You lit the match but I got a gun
Now everybody, everybody on your knees
Everybody, everybody on your knees

It feels like falling
Evil you wanted
Bet you feel safe
Carry the weight
One chance and you're all in
I can't believe it
You had everything

And all you made was
Shame
Shame
And all you made was
Shame
Gave everything you had, now you got nothing left but shame

I drew a line in the sand that I know you won't cross
Call me out, run your mouth, now you got what you want
Face it, you're gone now
Fake it, no god now
Take it and bow down
I hope you're proud now

It feels like falling
Evil you wanted
Bet you feel safe
Carry the weight
One chance and you're all in
I can't believe it
You had everything

And all you made was
Shame
Shame
And all you made was
Shame
Gave everything you had, now you got nothing left but shame

Everybody, everybody on your knees
Everybody, everybody on your knees

It feels like falling
Evil you wanted
Bet you feel safe
Carry the weight
One chance and you're all in
I can't believe it
You gave everything

And all you made was
Shame
Shame
And all you made was

Shame

Gave everything you had, now you got nothing left but shame
