

Pity Points

underscores

And I don't know what's gotten into me
I need to know your boundaries
I'm not just talking 'bout the other week
But ever since I've felt this stress surround me
And none of that was meant for you
When you did nothing but support me
Can't help but feel that I neglected you
So I want to cordially invite you to my pity party

Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend

Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend

Collect, collect, collect, collect all of your pity points
(Pity points, yeah)
I'm about to put my foot down, foot down
Collect, collect, collect, collect all of your pity points
(Pity points, yeah)
Thank you for your time you suppressed my doubts
I hope I'll see you at my pity party

Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend

Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm the best friend
Tell me I'm the best friend, tell me I'm your best friend
