

Trustfall!

underscores

Get a bloody nose
Get a bloody nose sometimes, and my brand new throat
I picked it up on Saturday
I just need to take
I just need to take my time in my brand new clothes
I'm boutta put 'em all away

And I hope the bugs don't bite me again
They been getting my legs, and the tips of my hands
I keep running away, they don't fuck with my plans
And I hope the bugs don't get at my head
And she hopes someone who she's been calling a friend
Could just pick up the phone every now and again

And I let 'em go, trust fall
And I let 'em go, trust fall
And I let 'em go, trust fall
And I let 'em go, trust fall

Bleeding out my gums
Bleeding out my gums sometimes, and I don't know why
I guess I'll wait another week
Coughing up a lung
Coughing up a lung, dry cough, and my bloodshot eyes
I guess I'll have to wait and see

And I hope the bugs don't bite me again
They been getting my legs, and the tips of my hands
I keep running away, they don't fuck with my plans
And I hope the bugs don't get at my head
And she hopes someone who she's been calling a friend
Could just pick up the phone every now and again

And I let 'em go, trust fall
And I let 'em go, trust fall
And I let 'em go, trust fall
And I let 'em go, trust fall
