A man walks a dog
The dog says 'Hello' to everyone he meets
The man says nothing
Stares into the distance
The dog does all the talking

I'm seeing colours
Depending on my state of mind
The man is happy with the situation
He doesn't want to talk to anyone

He finds it an invasion of the space between his ears

He doesn't want to talk to anyone

He doesn't want to talk to anyone

He doesn't want to talk to anyone

He doesn't want to talk to anyone

He doesn't want to talk to anyone

He doesn't want to talk to anyone
