

Hard Lined Downfall

Uneath

Hard lined downfall!

Not today
Never an inch
Not in time
Not a lifetime away
The hunted down pay liberty's price
I live for the fear
I feed on their tears

Building a fortress tall
I know they'll come for all
I'll be here waiting
Steadfast, I hold my ground
Increasing arsenal
Defend the words of old
I'll be here waiting
Steadfast, I hold my ground

I aim at the weak
At all the pathetic traitors that preach

The law gives me the right
To value this more than human life
The law gives me the right
To value this more than human life

Building a fortress tall
I know they'll come for all
I'll be here waiting
Steadfast, I hold my ground
Increasing arsenal
Defend the words of old
I'll be here waiting
Steadfast, I hold my ground

I throw out all reason
And narrate my own demise
Consumed by the noise

Hard lined downfall
Ignorance is the catalyst

They'll come for me
They'll come for me
And I'll be waiting
They'll come for me
They'll come for me
And I'll be waiting
They'll come for me
They'll come for me
And I'll be waiting
They'll come for me
They'll come for me
And I'll be waiting
