

Incinerate

Unearth

Not on our watch,
We won't be bound to your prison.
Not on our watch,
Your battlefield's a prison!
Incinerate!
Incinerate the tyrants.
Incinerate!
Incinerate the tyrants.

I see, nothing but strangers.
Who have we become?

Battleground for the living,
Going home I see nothing but strangers.
Battleground for the living,
There's a nothingness, the sound of us breathing.
The eyes, full of love, lurk within ourselves.
What if I, sterilize, a brain of conscious thoughts.
The eyes, full of love, lurk within ourselves.
What if I, sterilize, a brain of conscious thoughts.

Not on our watch,
We won't be bound to your prisons.
Not on our watch,
Your battlefield's a prison!
Incinerate!
Incinerate the tyrants.
Incinerate!
Incinerate the tyrants.

This isn't how our story ends!
The evil taking (Hold of me)
Will share a hold,
On humanity.
This isn't how our story ends!

Battleground for the living,
Going home I see nothing but strangers.
Battleground for the living,
There's a nothingness, the sound of us breathing.
The eyes, full of love, lurk within ourselves.
What if I, sterilize, a brain of conscious thoughts.
The eyes, full of love, lurk within ourselves.
What if I, sterilize, a brain of conscious thoughts.

(E. Pluribus Unum, incinerate it tonight, incinerate)

You rape your city lot
You'll burn your prisons.
You rape your city lot
E. Pluribus Unum
We will incinerate.
We will incinerate.
We will!
