Uneven Structure

I climbed over the highest mountains and peaks
I evaded traps and survived the winding paths
I walked in blood and the mud
I ran over the dead bodies of my enemies

Today I'm complete
I contemplate these trophies
In this dusty showcase
In this showcase of doubts

I'm done with all of this
I'm now becoming the answer
I'm done with you today

But at what price? What a fucking price!
I wonder, I ask you
Are you ready to hear the truth?
I don't believe you
Keep rocking with your old illusions

Stay in your pretty dream of soiled glory
And count your victories as we count the coins

I'm done with all of this
I'm now becoming the answer
I'm done with you today
I'm done
I'm done
I'm done with you today

I resume the path of epic battles
But this time they will be mine

I am the answer
