Yea
Picture this
A young kid and ambitious
To make moves past
Even with the world up against 'em
I said
Fuck that
I gotta go with the pendulum
Everybody ain't gon' like it
When you doin' it better forreal
Well wishes to the youth of me
It's been a long time
But I'm here today with opportunities
No matter what I'm stayin' true to me
I den been thru the bullshit
I'm not worried about capabilities

Long livin'
I been givin' it everything
From the moment that I stepped up
They try to talk down on me
Worth, I'm innovating the way I think
Puttin' value to the hustle
Any moment I come with the heat
So tell me wassup
I got this
All of you motherfuckers be doubtin' on me
Opp shit
You could do better
But you keep making me a topic
I don't get it at all
Cause you don't make a profit
Woe

What have you done
Not more much less
One day we gon' die
I'm gon' die a legend
When I go hard I can't stop the pace
How did I get far? I just ran the race
I'm gettin' tired of this bullshit
Motherfuckers be puttin' down cause I'm in the way

Yea
Picture this
A young kid and ambitious
To make moves past
Even with the world up against 'em
I said
Fuck that
I gotta go with the pendulum
Everybody ain't gon' like it
When you doin' it better forreal
Well wishes to the youth of me
It's been a long time
But I'm here today with opportunities
No matter what I'm stayin' true to me

I den been thru the bullshit
Don't think you can take this from me

I'm so used to havin' nothin'
Now I'm constantly a part of something
Feelin' the pressure
Gotta keep my mind right
So I be smokin'
Up and plottin'
After midnight
Weighin' out of my options
In society
Anxiety - expiring

Hollow in the soul
As the journey goes
With every step
I'm takin' goin' down a darkened road
My mama said keep a prayer
But I'd rather keep a heater
Because this world can get cold
Don't freeze up when they need you
And in the crevices
I'm noticing the seeping of
Sense of humanity
Why can't we keep from fuckin' up
I curse my flaws
And to be honest I just feel consumed
In negativity
I hate the damage that I do
A resolution would be nice
But I can't find that flow
I barely got a grip on myself
Still don't fuckin' know
What happens next
Why am I thinkin' over critically
I never meant to choke myself
It just got hard to breathe

Picture this
A young kid with some problems
And overwhelmed by the motherfucking world all around 'em
He said
What's the point of giving everything
All I got is the grief
And the burden of being my own worst enemy
