You leave me wanting more
I'm craving
You leave me wanting more
I'm craving

Tell me you want this
For everlasting gain
Your poison's taking over
Working against me
You say I'm nothing
And I believe every word
I'm still resisting
But I like the rush of the burn

So take your time
I'm so obsessed
Make me feel alive
I'm yearnin'

Because I want you
And I'm shaking
Deeper in my bones
I feel you take over me
Because I want you
And I'm shaking
Deeper in my bones
I feel you take over me

I feel you take over me

You're such a nuisance
Fuck me up (ah)
Cause you know
How to get just what you want
You're speaking loosely
With a grip held so tight
Don't wanna look in your eyes
Cause they know
Don't speak

Because I want you
And I'm shaking
Deeper in my bones
I feel you take over me
Because I want you
And I'm shaking
Deeper in my bones
I feel you take over me

They always say that love hurts
Rip my throat out
So I can't speak your fucking name
Lost my senses to the pain
I wanna know (I wanna know)
Are you satisfied?
Are you satisfied?
Are you satisfied?

I feel you take over me
I feel you take over me
I feel you take over me
I feel you take over me

Because I want you
And I'm shaking
Deeper in my bones
I feel you take over me
Because I want you
And I'm shaking
Deeper in my bones
I feel you take over me

You leave me wanting more
I'm craving
You leave me wanting more
I'm craving
You leave me wanting more
I'm craving
You leave me wanting more
I'm craving
