

SS Interlude

Unknown T

(Yeah)

Sweet symphony, sometimes I struggle mentally
Certain things were never meant to be
Certain things were never meant to be
Meant to be, meant to be
Sweet symphony, sometimes I struggle mentally
Certain things were never meant to be
Keep your distance from a enemy
And remember me, as a memory

Bad days I'm rollin', blowin' up my pain
Its not the flavour that I'm smokin'
Back stroke, sideways, ride it and control it
Sweet symphony, let me phone you for a bonin'
Last time you took dick, I had your eyeballs rollin', the real you showin'
The white bezels on my ice, ice, it ain't even snowin'
Baby I been livin' ocean, frankly I don't even lotion
All these fishes in the sea, but you're the only one I chosen,
I know

Sweet symphony, sometimes I struggle mentally
Certain things were never meant to be
Certain things were never meant to be
Meant to be, meant to be
Sweet symphony, sometimes I struggle mentally
Certain things were never meant to be
Keep your distance from a enemy
And remember me, as a memory
Sweet symphony, sometimes I struggle mentally
Certain things were never meant to be
Certain things were never meant to be
Meant to be, meant to be
Sweet symphony, sometimes I struggle mentally
Certain things were never meant to be
Keep your distance from a enemy
And remember me, as a memory
