

City Of Iron

Unleash the Archers

I have awakened from the sorrow
My tarnished soul renewed immortal, Crawling to life
And as the horror animated
Manifests I'm recreated, All doubt aside

Step away from the strife, Embrace the rising tide

In the rays of the starlight, I will rise, Divine Empire
In the rays of the starlight, she will shine, City of Iron

Deathlessness is the curse that I bear
One thousand deaths on my sleeve is the cross that I wear

Discern this fortress cast of metal
A citadel for dusk to settle, stronghold of hate
A stark reflection of my power
Hid within a sable tower, marshal my fate

Step away from the strife, Embrace the rising tide

In the rays of the starlight, I will rise, Divine Empire
In the rays of the starlight, she will shine, City of Iron

I am the omen, Fatal harbinger
All beware, Days are numbered

I'll part the shadows, let control fade away, planets align
Celestial arsenal, steel-plated galaxy, moons lit afire

Step away from the strife, Embrace the rising tide

In the rays of the starlight, I will rise, Divine Empire
In the rays of the starlight, she will shine, City of Iron
