

Give It Up Or Give It All

Unleash the Archers

When you're lost and hope is gone
You gotta be the one you lean on
When you got nowhere to call home
Just roam

So nothing's turned out the way you planned
No matter how you tried
And though you feel that you have failed inside

You can stand, find a way
Step by step, day by day
Don't let a moment pass you by
Just keep going and you might find
You can fly (Fly, fly)

Try to believe in what is waiting on the other side
You just gotta get through it
You just gotta survive

No I can't take anymore heartache
It's like all I can do is fall
When the dream dies
No one to hear my cries
Time to give it up or give it all

Woah oh, woah oh
We're fighting forward again
Woah oh, woah oh
Can we make it to the end
Woah oh, woah oh
When you're backed up against a wall
Woah oh, woah oh
It's time to give it up or give it all

Looks like I'm all on my own again
Nobody by my side
And though I feel like I should run and hide

I can stand, find a way
Step by step, day by day
Won't let a moment pass me by
Just keep holding my head up high
And I'll fly (Fly, fly)

Better believe it, I'll be waiting when the time is right
I am gonna get through it
I am gonna survive

Woah oh, woah oh
We're fighting forward again
Woah oh, woah oh
Can we make it to the end
Woah oh, woah oh
When you're backed up against a wall
It's time to give it up or give it all

And you wonder why
The way we're thrown aside like
We're never enough, undeserved of love
But over time
You slowly realize
We're more than the sum of our parts, our parts

When you're lost and hope is gone
And you ain't got no one, no one
When you got nowhere to call home
And you're so alone
You're so alone
