

Fire Upon Your Lands

Unleashed

Into the fire
War at Bethel
Come man or beast
Welcome to hell
So, aim to kill!
We will fight or die, again
No mercy given
But will their God descend?
God descend

There will be fire upon your lands
His soldiers die in vain
It is your day of doom
You shall all be slain
All be slain

Cannons blasting
No turning back
Whatever comes our way
As the enemy attacks
Half men, half monsters
Well, they all bleed
Up the heaven's ladder now
His angels weep for his sins
For his sins

There will be fire upon your lands
His soldiers die in vain
It is your day of doom
You shall all be slain

There is no return
But will he come to your aid?
As your fortress burns

There will be fire upon your lands
His soldiers die in vain
It is your day of doom
You shall all be slain
