

Gram

Unleashed

From the depths of Hel
Onward they ride
On iron horses
Side by side
To aid in the south
As in the past
It is now
Loyalty will last

The call to arms
Wielding the Gram
The call to arms
Wielding the Gram
Gram [x2]

Forward into battle
No one hesitates
As the trial comes
It is their fate
Dead or alive
Time will tell
No surrender
Kindred of the few from Hel

The call to arms
Wielding the Gram
The call to arms
Wielding the Gram
Gram [x2]

The sword of power
Once stabbed in the heart of the dragon
The mark of Gram
Carried by the loyal few

On the open highway
Proud in their colors, side by side
On the open highway
Towards a blood red sky

The call to arms
Wielding the Gram
The call to arms
Wielding the Gram
Gram [x2]
