

Hail The Varangians!

Unleashed

We travel through the great Byzantine Empire and the new alliance
The Viking Varjagers, armies of the Atasharq and the Roman legions

Once again at Miklagard
By the gates of Miklagard

Hail the Varangians!
Warriors of the frontline

Here we camp through the night in the great city and fill our supplies
We speak of great heroic days and of past victories and might

Once again at Miklagard
By the gates of Miklagard

Hail the Varangians!
Warriors of the frontline
Hail the Varangians!
The alliance of our time

The great alliance of our time

Away from the foreign land
Where so much blood was shed
Now we tend to our wounded
And hold a blot for the dead

Hail the Varangians!
Warriors of the frontline
Hail the Varangians!
The alliance of our time
Hail the Varangians!
The alliance of our time
