

It is Finished

Unleashed

Father, oh father
Forgive them for they know not what they do
Father, oh father
Please forgive them

I thirst
It is finished

My master, my servant, why hast thou forsaken me?
All my suffering, can you not see?
My master, my servant, why hast thou forsaken me?
The torment, can you not see?

Pain, oh the pain, as the nails sink in
Blood flows over my body
Oh, the pain, was I not free from sin?

I thirst
It is finished

My master, my servant, why hast thou forsaken me?
All my suffering, can you not see?
My master, my servant, why hast thou forsaken me?
The torment, can you not see?

I thirst
It is finished

My master, my servant, why hast thou forsaken me?
All my suffering, can you not see?
My master, my servant, why hast thou forsaken me?
The torment, can you not see?
Father, oh father, will you safekeep my spirit?
Into thy hands eternally
