

So, we reach the coast
And the Haifa Pier
Our warships await
To take us far from here

Out into the unknown
And far from here

We shall rise above
No matter what's out there
Come men or giants
We have no fear
We shall rise above
Across the open sea
Until our last breath
It's our destiny

Out into the sea
Leaving Jotunheim
It's dark realm of death
And grim landscapes behind

Out into the unknown
And far from here

We shall rise above
No matter what's out there
Come men or giants
We have no fear
We shall rise above
Across the open sea
Until our last breath
It's our destiny
Our destiny

So, we reach the coast
And the Haifa Pier
Our warships await
To take us far from here

Out into the unknown
And far from here

We shall rise above
No matter what's out there
Come men or giants
We have no fear
We shall rise above
Across the open sea
Until our last breath
It's our destiny
