The Great Battle Of Odalheim

Unleashed

Our journey has come to an end The svithiod we have returned As Sol descends
On the winter solstice night
Our forces now prepare
For the final fight
A blot to Thor and Odin
As the morning breaks
The battle begins
The battailons of the world
At Uppsala fields
Their call is heard...

This is our world now!!!

The great battle of Odalheim The great battle of Odalheim

The armies of White Christ Now fire upon us all Blitzkrieg light the sky Warheads that explode

Shreds that burn their way
Into flesh and bone
Men cut in half
Blood rains from the sky
Breaking through enemy lines
Now close to victory
In the great war of our time

The great battle of Odalheim The great battle of Odalheim

The armies of White Christ No mercy behind enemy lines So close to victory In the great war of our time

The great battle of Odalheim The great battle of Odalheim

In the far distance Under an unkown flag A vast army appears...
