

The Longships Are Coming

Unleashed

Lindisfarne, holy land of pilgrimage for the christian man
Church of god, and monastery
8th June in the year of 793

The longships are coming
The longships are coming
The longships are coming
The longships are coming

Ohlord, hear us pray
Save us from the Norseman's rage
In despair, final gasp
On the day that would be their last

The longships are coming
The longships are coming
The longships are coming
The longships are coming
