

You Will Fall

Unleashed

I have risen from the will of the people
I have sworn allegiance to them all
And I will strike the hammer upon the enemies of Midgard
This is my life, this is my call

You will fall [x4]

I am a son, a father and a warrior
For my people I will gladly bleed
I am war, I am peace and justice
As we march for victory
I have a message from the warriors of Midgard
You can run but you can't hide
I have a message from the Hammer Battalions
They'll stop at nothing to bring forth the tide

You will fall [x4]

You will fall [x4]
