

A Cautionary Tale

Unlike Pluto

Throw away your yesterday
A cautionary tale
Where there's nothing left to gain
Tell me how'd your soul collapse?
A haunted past
Just excuses, I know that you are

Violent chemistry
Your toxic enemy
Watching while I burn
Hurting just because you like it
I'll be not your last

Endless horizons
You could pick any sunset
But you're eclipsing me
Try to decipher
The endless path that took you to your personal wasteland
Hopeless, causing pain

Violent chemistry
Your toxic enemy
Watching while I burn
Hurting just because you like it
I'll be not your last

I try to float along with the tide
I try but we still seem to collide
I try to reset and override
