

A Million Voices

Unlike Pluto

She told me that I'm weak, alright alright
And I'm out here tryin' to breath, alright alright
She ain't never gonna leave, alright alright
Right behind my shoulder

Whispers that we're on the same team, yeah
And all the shit she done is for me, yeah
She says I'm being paranoid but I'm not, I'm not

And I say just go away, just go away, just go away
I'm wondering everyday, everyday, everyday
Why can't I, just force you out of my life
Why can't I, just find a way, a better way to survive

And no one really cares if you try
Everything you have is a lie
And I may come and go for a while
But know I'm gonna be here until you die

If only you weren't buried in my mind
Pushing me to the edge of my decline
Tried to keep my grip, but I'm falling off the edge

And I don't know how I am still alive
I don't really care if you try
Nothing will change in your life
Just know that I'm here till you die

She told me that I'm weak, alright alright
And I'm just out here tryin' to breath, alright alright
She ain't never gonna leave, alright alright
Right behind my shoulder

Whispers that we're on the same team, yeah
And all the shit she done is for me, yeah
Says I'm being paranoid but I'm not, I'm not
