

Against The Timeline

Unlike Pluto

River starting to bend
Water flows like the time
When it comes to end
Was it really your life
Every twist
Every turn
Every inch is predetermined

Somehow I knew
That life will write itself out for you
Somehow I knew
Every crazy moment changed part of you
The fable made
In your head is a lie
A lie a lie a lie
A lie a lie

Purpose plays with your mind
A future always in flux
No fast forward or rewind
Just relying on luck
Every thought
Every word
Every choice a boon or burden

Somehow I knew
That life will write itself out for you
Somehow I knew
Every crazy moment changed part of you
The fable made
In your head is a lie
A lie a lie a lie
A lie a lie

If you wait forever
For a sign or symbol
Prison of your own making
And the walls are mental
And the timeline
It's a damn lie
No one knows what I'm going to do
Can't foreshadow
It won't matter
Not to me and not to you

Somehow I knew
That life will write itself out for you
Somehow I knew
Every crazy moment changed part of you
The fable made
In your head is a lie
A lie a lie a lie
A lie a lie
