

Belladonna

Unlike Pluto

Messy room around me
Depression dressed the room I sleep in Something feels special
When I dance to heavy metal

My emotions have been locked away for so long, yeah
Don't know how to let 'em out
I'm so lost, yeah
I'm so lost, yeah
Yeah (bend)

Would you wake up next to me
And let me be your everything
Or not?
Or am I nothing?

Belladonna of ecstasy
We're never more than history
It kills me
I feel like nothing

Tell my heart to rewind
You can't relive or rewrite
Scary moments in time
Depends what's in your mind

My emotions have been locked away for so long, yeah
Don't know how to let 'em out
I'm so lost, yeah
I'm so lost, yeah
Yeah (bend)

Would you wake up next to me
And let me be your everything
Or not?
Or am I nothing?

Belladonna of ecstasy
We're never more than history
It kills me
I feel like nothing

Love is such a blur
A lens that bends and curves
Picture that allures you in
Reenter the cure
Confidence to procure
A love that stings and burns
Within

Love is such a blur
A lens that bends and curves
A picture that let's you in
Reenter the cure
Confidence to procure
A love that stings and burns
Within

Would you wake up next to me
And let me be your everything
Or not?
Or am I nothing?
