

Better Luck Next Life

Unlike Pluto

Outta nowhere, hallway walls are breathing
Something leads to nothing in the end
Is it fate or fortune? Nobody knows (nobody knows)
A series of unfortunate events

Better luck next life, so
Saddle up and ride to
Anywhere, anywhere
Better luck next life, so
Saddle up and ride to
Anywhere, anywhere, oh

Opening my mind, please come and visit
If you made it in, you'd go insane
Eons overthinking in an instant
Suddenly you're back where you began

Better luck next life, so
Saddle up and ride to
Anywhere, anywhere
Better luck next life, so
Saddle up and ride to
Anywhere, anywhere, oh

It's too late, close the book on better days
A new age, try to reincarnate
Fate or fortune, nobody knows
It's too late, better luck next life
