

Closed Loop

Unlike Pluto

Just another day
Just another day
I'm goin crazy
Caught up in the fray
Caught in the shades of grey
I'm hazy

My life's a loop that cycles
Look at the clock it's vital
Seconds are never final
Spins around alot like vinyl

Wake, eat, work, sleep
Wake, eat, work, sleep

I feel like I'm stuck in a loop I made
And every turn leads back to the same place
Blow out the circuits, tear off the curtains
Set fire to the lion's den

Boss says, keep it movin
You're nothing special
Forget why you're doin it
9 to 5, just cycle
I'm sorry sir, I didn't mean to have these dreams
But fuck you cuz I know I'm meant for bigger things

Wake, eat, work, sleep
Wake, eat, work, sleep

I feel like I'm stuck in a loop I made
And every turn leads back to the same place
Blow out the circuits, tear off the curtains
Set fire to the lion's den

And I've had some failures but got good intentions
And I've got ambition that nobody mentions
I promise I'm gonna push it
I promise I'm gonna get out fine
It's my, it's my life

Blow out the circuits, tear off the curtains
Set fire to the lion's den
