

Cloudy Eyes

Unlike Pluto

I got cloudy eyes
Sunshine in my life
Now I've got anchors no more
You can say I'm blind
But I see from the sky
And I'll keep going higher

One day my feet took off the ground
Feels like my weight is shedding now
Sunshine in the sky starts cutting through (starts cutting though)
Kaleidoscope of butterflies
This is where I want to be
But then the colors change
The blue turns into grey

Lightning then thunder oh no
I think I need to let it go
But if I just keep pushing through (Oooh, yeah)

I got cloudy eyes
Sunshine in my life
I've got anchors no more
You can say I'm blind
But I see from the sky
And I'll keep going higher

No, clue
What's right in front of me
Close, view
Shadows surprising me
And then the rain turns into ice
Hitting my skin like little knives
And when things finally calm
I realize I'm in the eye of the storm

Lightning then thunder oh no
I think I need to let it go
But if I just keep pushing through

I got cloudy eyes
Sunshine in my life
I've got anchors no more
You can say I'm blind
But I see from the sky
And I'll keep going higher

I got cloudy eyes
Sunshine in my life
I got cloudy eyes
Sunshine in my life
