

Detuned

Unlike Pluto

All alone in this room
Out of time and detuned

Late at night I'm staying up
Run the scene slow it down
I'm not close to keeping up
Lost the color all around

Bend the fabric of time
Distorted
Sounds that fit in my life
Oscillate
At your rate when you're

All alone in this room
Out of time and detuned
Happier on the wrong notes
Half speed with the moon

Everyone thinks I'm giving up
Just because I'm different
Off beat of a rhythm
I live out of harmony

Bend the fabric of time
Distorted
Sounds that fit in my life
Oscillate
At your rate when you're

All alone in this room
Out of time and detuned
Happier on the wrong notes
Half Speed with the moon

It's hard to say what I'm feeling
Got a cadence that's never ending
The light is always bending from the prism I'm in Don't throw glass stones, at a glass house it shatter within Put the pieces in the trash bin of the thoughts you live in

All alone in this room
