

Dread

Unlike Pluto

I wish I could reach out
I wish I could scream out
I wish
That someone could hear my silent screaming

Flatline of my soul
I'm on the floor
The darker the dream, the darker the sky
I look up and I see

Something in the moonlight of the shadows in my head
Give in to the silence of emotions that I dread
I'll raise hell in my mind
I'll raise hell in my mind

I try to weather the pain
I try, but it's always the same
I try
But I'm always the obstacle in the way

Turn it inside out
Let the secret out
The darker the dream, the darker the sky
I look up and I see

Something in the moonlight of the shadows in my head
Give in to the silence of emotions that I dread
I'll raise hell in my mind
I'll raise hell in my mind

Memories I wanna forget
Welcome my darkest hour, welcome my darkest hour
Memories I wanna forget
I wanna forget

Something in the moonlight of the shadows in my head
Give into the silence of emotions that I dread
I'll raise hell in my mind
I'll raise hell in my mind
