

Endless

Unlike Pluto

I was aiming for the moon
RIP the path I choose
Journeys always seems to be (Endless)
I was reaching for the truth
I thought I was bullet proof
Destination always moves (Endless)

Every trip
Off the grid
Battleship, sink and quit
All my life
Overtime
Things'll grow and decline
So nice, it's sublime
The fall was a surprise

I was aiming for the moon
RIP the path I choose
Journeys always seems to be (Endless)
I was reaching for the truth
I thought I was bullet proof
Destination always moves (Endless)

Every time
I predict
Always flips
Always miss
Crystalline
By design
It takes time
For the shine
By the time
You're divine
Your spine
Realigns

I was aiming for the moon
RIP the path I choose
Journeys always seems to be (Endless)
I was reaching for the truth
I thought I was bullet proof
Destination always moves (Endless)

I'm faraway
Close but no cigar
I'm faraway
I'm faraway
Close but no cigar
I'm faraway

I was aiming for the moon
(I was aiming for the moon)
RIP the path I choose (Endless)
(RIP the path I choose)
I was reaching for the truth

(I was reaching for the truth)
I thought I was bullet proof (Endless)
