

Fata Morgana

Unlike Pluto

I see where he goes
He moves like he knows how it unfolds
Through the window
Rub my eyes to reassure what I see

He's moving toward Himself
With nothing in sight
Does he know
What's in his eyes
Only he knows
Has he lost his mind

Fata morgana
I see what I wanna
Castles in the air all they do is stare
Fata morgana
I'm a goner

I see what you don't
I let these stories play in my head
Then they transform
Into a scene that escaped my dreams

Am I alright
Inside
With nothing in sight
Clear eyes
What's in my eyes
Only I know
Have I lost my mind

Fata morgana
I see what I wanna
Castles in the air all they do is stare
Fata morgana
I'm a goner

Castles In The air start to crash down
Ready or not
Crash course, I hit, the floor, how amusing

Fata morgana
I see what I wanna
Castles in the air all they do is stare
Fata morgana
I'm a goner

Fata morgana
Fata morgana
Fata morgana
Fata morgana
