

Goner

Unlike Pluto

Why do I
Always see these things when they're
Done and gone
Why do I
Always see these things when they're
Done and gone

Some things you outrun
When your heart tells you it's done
Nothing has to die
For you to realize
It's done and gone

It's done
And gone

Why do I always see these things
When they're done and done and gone
Why do I always see these things
When they're done and done and gone
I feel like I'm going crazy
Like I'm going searching for a place where I belong
Today and heal
The shadows remain
So I can feel the pain
Keep them in frame
It reminds me of the pain

Why do I
Always see these things when they're
Done and gone
And why do I
Always see these things when they're
Done and gone

Some things you outrun
When your heart tells you it's done
Nothing has to die
For you to realize
It's done and gone

It's done
And gone

Done, done, gone, nothing else to die for
Done, done, gone, nothing else to die for
I'm alone but won't admit it
I'm alone but won't admit it
Hey, hey, let your demons run free
Hey, I'm sure the demons run away from me

Why do I
Always see these things when they're
Done and gone
Why do I
Always see these things when they're
Done and gone

Some things you outrun
When your heart tells you it's done
Nothing has to die
For you to realize
It's done and gone

It's done
And gone
Why do I always see these things
It's done and gone
It's done and gone
