

Have Fun

Unlike Pluto

I'm done
Telling people have fun
Don't believe what they say
It's all make believe anyway

All the talking heads are
Singing harmonies
Overloading me, confusing
Hollow-point opinions
Slave to your convictions
Domain over me, consuming

It's a crime
The cold distorted world you weave for yourself
Stuck in time
You're frozen in a false belief of yourself
Cuz I'm through

I'm done
Telling people have fun
Don't believe what they say
It's all make believe anyway

Don't care
What you said it's unfair
Making shit up like your
The king of everyone's storyline
Fading
Never ending

Virus when they're speaking
Brainwash the machines and
They walk all around 9 to 5
Build a zombie army
Prey on what they want to be
They will spend their time, spreading your lies

It's a crime
The cold distorted world you weave for yourself
Stuck in time
You're frozen in a false belief of yourself
Cuz I'm through

I'm done
Telling people have fun
Don't believe what they say
It's all make believe anyway

Don't care
What you said it's unfair
Making shit up like your
The king of everyone's storyline
Fading
Never ending

A perfect lie
In a

Perfect disguise
Oooh the truth has died
And it
Seems that you're delighted

I'm done

Don't care
What you said it's unfair
Fading
Never ending
