Hollow

Unlike Pluto

I wish a void opened in the air
To suck me up because I don't really care

While I'm falling I
Wondered if you would
Miss me when, miss me when I'm gone
While I'm falling I wondered if you would
Miss me when I am gone

I feel so hollow
Hollow inside, hollow inside
Promise me everything
Promise me everything
But please don't lie
Please don't lie

Disappointment echos in my brain
Anyone would really go insane
Empty hands promised me everything
But gave me nothing in the end

While I'm falling I
Wondered if you would
Miss me when, miss me when I'm gone
While I'm falling I
Wondered if you would
Miss me when I am gone

I feel so hollow
Hollow inside, hollow inside
Promise me everything
Promise me everything
But please don't lie
Please don't lie

When I fall, I fall
Would you miss me at all?

I feel so hollow
Hollow inside, hollow inside
Promise me everything
Promise me everything
But please don't lie
Please don't lie
