

Misery

Unlike Pluto

Hide away
In my reality
No flowers around for me
Am I in my own mind or is someone there?

In a dream
I draw you in
And I tell you that
Our future is burning so bright
I don't know how to say this
Oh, how do I say this to you

My misery hates
Company, oh
It hates everything
My misery hates
Company, oh
Everything but you
Everything but you

Everything is changed
When nothing is the same
Or am I in love?
Or am I in insane?
Oh, hideaway in my reality
Oh, these flower delusions
These flower delusions

It's not a dream
I've woken up
I hear you say
Our future is burning so bright
I don't know how to say this
Oh, how do I say this to you

My misery hates
Company oh
It hates everything
My misery hates
Company oh
It hates everything, everything but you
Everything but you

Our future is burning so bright
I don't know how to say this
Our future is burning so bright
Oh, how do I say this to you?

My misery hates
Company, oh
It hates everything
My misery hates
Company, oh
Everything but you
Everything but you
