

No Debate

Unlike Pluto

I, I don't wanna debate
I'll go my way
You'll go your way

And I don't wanna leave ya
But I'm done tryna to please ya
You're on your own now
Cause you're just too damn stubborn
No matter what I tell ya
I'm always let down
And I want to escape
Wanted it with self
You're blaming me
But my loyalty
It was blinding me
Make it stop, make it stop
Make it stop, make it stop

I, I don't wanna debate
I'll go my way
You'll go your way

You tell me before I could give you a chance
To tell me all everything when I'm done with it
Don't wanna hear it you always lie
You painted a picture that faded away
Colorful was the return in decay
You're noticing your way
No I'm not listening
I got better things
I could do with my time
No more loyalty
I'm finally free
Moving on, moving on
Moving on, moving on

I, I don't wanna debate
I'll go my way
You'll go your way

I, I don't wanna debate
I'll go my way
You'll go your way
