

Poster Boy

Unlike Pluto

I had it in my mind
And a moment left in a distant time with you (you)
A moment left in time

Why should I stop
Even though I was left out, yeah
It's gonna circle back around
Everything I out-run, I out-run

And I ain't ever gonna ever be your poster boy, ooh-ooh
There's been a lot of empty promises, I'm paranoid, paranoid
If I don't meet your standards, let go
You cannot manufacture my soul, mmh
I'll never be your poster boy, poster boy
Poster boy, boy, boy

You won't find me on the line-up
You won't see my name light up, yeah
'Cause I'm living with no regret
Clouds of sound raining down on me
You don't like what I do
And I don't like what you do
Try to convince me to
Pump the breaks, pump the breaks

Why should I stop
Even though I was left out, yeah
It's gonna circle back around
Everything I out-run, I out-run

And I ain't ever gonna ever be your poster boy, ooh-ooh
There's been a lot of empty promises, I'm paranoid, paranoid
If I don't meet your standards, let go
You cannot manufacture my soul, mmh
I'll never be your poster boy, poster boy
Poster boy, boy, boy
