

Regret Roulette

Unlike Pluto

Oh, hypomania
Who will betray me, yeah
Oh, I'm like uranium
But who can blame me, yeah

Cuz I hold onto
We all hold onto
What we think will prove
That we're really sane
In the velvet room
Throw the dice onto
Let it ride on through
Then it all goes away

Regret roulette
It's always moves around me
But I'm all in
Time to rewrite my story

(Whoo!)

Oh, hysteria
Oh, it's getting scary yeah
Oh, it's in my area
Oh, and it'll bury ya

Cuz I hold onto
We all hold onto
What we think will prove
That it's not a waste
In the velvet room
Throw the dice onto
Let it ride on through
Cuz we'll always play

Regret roulette
It's always moves around me
But I'm all in
Time to rewrite my story

(Whoo!)

Feel like I don't really say what I want
Regret is a hell of a drug to come down from
All of these thoughts they race in my head
Feels like I'm suffering by you
