

Sentimental

Unlike Pluto

I get sentimental
When I look at the sky
Something elemental
Building under my eyes, eye

Floating satellite
Orbiting in the sky
Asteroid pushing in
Knock it off course and then
Moving through atmosphere
Sci-fi chandelier
But the sun's getting near
Dim the lights

So much that I never knew
Nothing ever comes to you

I get sentimental
When I look at the sky
Something elemental
Building under my eyes, eye

Gravity strikes as I fall
I'm catching flame, oh, as I fall

So much that I never knew
So much that I knew
Nothing ever comes to you

I get sentimental
When I look at the sky
Something elemental
Building under my eyes, eye
Sentimental
When I think of how much the sky calls me in
Growing with memories of the dreams I'm living In

Ooh, dreaming now, I wanna fantasize
(Wondering where the time went)
Ooh, dreaming now, voices in my head
(Devil on my shoulder)
Open up for something real in your life
The fantasy of a million

I get sentimental
When I look at the sky
Something elemental
Building under my eyes, eye
Sentimental
When I think of how much the sky calls me in
Growing with memories of the dreams I'm living In

The impact without a sound
