

Shelf Life

Unlike Pluto

You will forget me
Sitting on a shelf
No one will miss me
Life is going well
Shelf is now empty
Choices running slim
I'm hoping that maybe
You'll pick me

I'm see through
I'm see through
A statue on a shelf

I'm see through
I'm see through
Losing the time of my life

Expiring time
A constant deadline
Pull me in
A borrowed lifeline
Unfinished white lines
Color me in

Just pick me up
The time is right
Don't think I'll make it
Through the night
Another day
Another disappointment
Finding me

You will forget me
Sitting on a shelf
No one will miss me
Life is going well
Shelf is now empty
Choices running slim
I'm hoping that maybe
You'll pick me

I'm see through
I'm see through
A statue on a shelf

I'm see through
I'm see through
Losing the time of my life

Digest my timeline
I'm Sad but I'm fine
Moving on
No time for mourning
I'll change my story
To something that feels new

Just pick me up

The time is right
Don't think I'll make it
Through the night
Another day
Another disappointment
Finding me

You will forget me
Sitting on a shelf
No one will miss me
Life is going well
Shelf is now empty
Choices running slim
I'm hoping that maybe
You'll pick me

I'm see through
I'm see through
A statue on a shelf

I'm see through
I'm see through

So long
So long
I know you'll walk away
Oh no
Oh no
I guess I'm here to stay
Oh no
