Stuck

Unlike Pluto

I'm stuck in a story of where I want to be
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be

Who I could be

Build me a fantasy
With the lights on, lights on
The darker the history
Turn the lights off, forget

Who will break the cycle?
Who will run from the ending?
Spin it off and detach now
Before the plot reveals that I'm-

Stuck in a story of where I want to be
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be
Say I can breathe
Say I can die
Say I can live, I'm telling you why
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be

The battle inside of me
A flashback, flashback
A theme that's looping in my head
Make it stop

The waves are crashing in
And I'm the one washing ashore
With nowhere to go, so I feel

Stuck in a story of where I want to be
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be
Say I can breathe
Say I can die
Say I can live, I'm telling you why
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be

Is it a curse or a choice? Is it in my head?
How do I silence all the noise?
Take me down with the ending
Take me down with the ending

I'm stuck in a story of where I want to be
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be
Say I can breathe
Say I can die
Say I can live, I'm telling you why
I'm stuck in the pages of who I could be
