

Suckerpunch

Unlike Pluto

It feels like, feels like a sucker punch
Came from behind it was building up
Did you decide that your giving up
One petal at a time my dreams
My dreams they fall apart
I wasn't made for this
My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

If it wasn't meant to be
You gotta let it spill away
In a world of razor blades
Even dreams can bleed
Even the ones you can't see

It feels like, feels like a sucker punch
Came from behind it was building up
Did you decide that your giving up
One petal at a time my dreams
My dreams they fall apart
I wasn't made for this
My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

Like, like it or not
You can't control the future
The way that things play out
For better or worse
Life will hit you like that

It feels like, feels like a sucker punch
Came from behind it was building up
Did you decide that your giving up
One petal at a time my dreams
My dreams they fall apart
I wasn't made for this
My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

My dreams they fall apart
Dreams they fall apart

My dreams they fall apart
