

Sunlight Or Demise

Unlike Pluto

So burn it to hell, with sunshine in your eyes
Oh wish me well, it's sunlight or demise

Paved a way
To empty out all the good intentions
Turn away
But can you live with your decisions?

Close your eyes and imagine
All of it, and
I see all the flames grow after midnight, midnight

So burn it to hell, with sunshine in your eyes
Oh wish me well, it's sunlight or demise
Give me a horizon, I'll trade the night
Give me a horizon, to shed the night
So burn it to hell, with sunshine in your eyes

(Ooooooh)
Burn it, burn it down to hell
Burn it, burn it down to-
Burn it, burn it down to-

Was it worth the chase?
The game played right doesn't stab you in the back
You're two-faced
Can't decide where to go, where to go from here

Close your eyes and imagine all of it, oh
I can see the flames grow after midnight, midnight

So burn it to hell, with sunshine in your eyes
Oh wish me well, it's sunlight or demise
Give me a horizon, I'll trade the night
Give me a horizon, to shed the night
So burn it to hell, with sunshine in your eyes

(Ooooooh)
Burn it, burn it down to hell
Burn it, burn it down to-
Burn it, burn it down to-

Let me tell you a secret if you wanna hear
Some words cut like stone when the pain is near Spitting lies, farcry, how long till you realize?
Dark times, goodbyes, can you even live with yourself?

(Ooooooh) Burn it, burn it down to hell
(Ooooooh) Burn it, burn it down to-

Burn it, burn it down to hell
