

Time Is Eating

Unlike Pluto

I remember the moment I got left behind
Faces fade to black as they move from the light
Am I even real, even real?
Everywhere I look, I'm starting to feel

Time is eating me alive, me alive
Drowning in my life, who am I?
Time is eating me alive, alive

My feet glued to the floor, I'm not moving anywhere
Locked inside of a crowd that couldn't care less
Everything was moving so fast
Everywhere I look, I'm starting to feel

Time is eating me alive, me alive
Drowning in my life, who am I?
Time is eating me alive, alive

Time moves on and on (on and)
Can I stomach it? Can I stomach it?
Where did I go wrong?
My fear built an appetite but

Time is eating me alive, me alive
Drowning in my life, who am I?
Time is eating me alive, alive
